

Am I eligible to vote?

If you are a British citizen living abroad, you can apply to be an overseas voter.

As long as you were registered to vote in the UK within the last 15 years, you can register to vote from overseas. If you were too young to register when you left the UK, your parent or guardian must have been registered.

As an overseas voter, you are eligible to vote in elections for the UK Parliament and the European Parliament. You cannot vote in UK local or mayoral elections, or elections to the Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly for Wales or the London Assembly.

If you live in a country which is a member of the European Union, you can vote in that country's own local and European parliamentary elections. But, you cannot vote in European elections in more than one country.

How do I register to vote?

- 1 Fill in the electoral registration form.
- 2 Make sure you sign the declaration and get another British citizen living overseas, but not a close relative, to sign the witness declaration.
- 3 Return your completed form as soon as possible to your electoral registration office. This is the office responsible for the address where you were last registered to vote in the UK. You can find their contact details at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk

Register to vote as soon as you can, or it may be too late to vote in the next election.

Who has my personal details?

There are two versions of the electoral register – the full version and the edited version. The full register is used for elections and referendums, preventing and detecting crime, and checking applications for credit. The edited register is available for general sale and can be used for commercial activities such as marketing.

Your details will appear on the full version of the register, but you can choose whether or not your details appear on the edited register.

How can I vote?

You can vote in one of three ways.

- By post if you want your ballot paper sent to you. You should be aware that it will be sent to you about a week before the election. So, you need to consider whether there is enough time to receive your ballot paper, mark your vote and return it before voting closes on election day. Ballot papers that arrive after this time will not be counted.
- By proxy when you ask someone you know and trust to vote on your behalf. Your proxy can either vote for you at your polling station or by post. Your proxy must be aged 18 or over and must be eligible to vote (for example, a British, Irish or qualifying Commonwealth citizen living in the UK). If you have appointed a proxy, you can still vote in person as long as your proxy has not already voted for you or applied to vote for you by post.
- In person if you are in the UK on election day. You can only vote at the polling station where you are registered to vote in the UK. You cannot vote at your local embassy or consulate. You can not vote in person if you, or your proxy, have applied to vote by post. If you have appointed a proxy, you can still vote in person, provided your proxy has not already voted for you.

If you want to vote by post or by proxy, you need to fill in one of the application forms that accompany this form.

More information

Please contact your electoral registration office if you have any questions about:

- registering to vote;
- postal and proxy voting.

In England and Wales, the electoral registration office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office.

For contact details, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk

How do I apply to vote by post?

- 1 Fill in the postal vote application form.
- 2 Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature.
- 3 Return your form as soon as possible to the address shown below.

Please do not return your form to The Electoral Commission.

Please note: your application form must arrive at your electoral registration office at least 11 working days before the election.

Voting by post

You can apply to vote by post for a particular election, for a set period of time or for all future elections. Postal votes can be sent out to addresses in the UK and abroad.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- When an election is going to be held, your ballot paper will be sent to you in the post. Remember, it may not be sent out until four working days before election day, or three working days in Scotland. This may not allow enough time for you to return your ballot paper before voting closes, so voting by post may not be the best way for you to vote. You may want to consider voting by proxy (someone else voting for you).
- If it does not arrive by this time, contact your electoral registration office for a replacement ballot paper. In Scotland, contact the returning officer at your local council. You must do this by 5pm on election day.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form, and again when you use your postal vote. This information is needed to tackle fraud.
- Make sure you return your postal vote so that it arrives by election day, otherwise it will not be counted. You will need to pay the postage.

- If it is too late to send your vote back by post, you can hand it in on election day to the returning officer at your local council or drop it off at a polling station in your constituency.
- Your postal vote will be mixed with all the others before counting begins, so your vote will be kept secret.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. Please note: your application form must arrive at your electoral registration office at least 11 working days before the election when changing or cancelling an existing postal or postal proxy vote and at least 6 working days before the election when applying for a new proxy vote.

Voting by proxy

You can apply to vote by proxy for a particular election, for a set period of time or for all future elections. This form allows you to vote by proxy for as long as you remain registered as an overseas voter.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your local polling station to vote. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. They can apply to do this up to 11 days before election day. Contact your electoral registration office for more details.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You must let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate or which party.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on election day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so and has not applied to vote for you by post.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to tackle fraud.
